

Metaphysics in the Tradition of Aristotle

Providence College, September 23-24, 2016

Providence College is happy to announce the first in a series of workshops dedicated to philosophical thought in the tradition of Aristotle. These workshops are intended to provide a venue for scholars and graduate students to present ongoing research and works-in-progress. Following each of the presentations, there will be ample time set aside for questions, comments, and collegial discussion.

The organizers welcome presentations of 25 minutes on the metaphysical thought of Aristotle and on Aristotelian metaphysics in the Greek, Arabic, Latin, modern, and contemporary philosophical traditions. Submissions from graduate students and rising scholars are particularly encouraged. Abstracts of 500 words should be submitted to Fr. Philip Neri Reese, O.P., by April 15th at: Philip.Neri.Reese@providence.edu

Invited Presenters: Thérèse-Anne Druart (CUA), Mary Louise Gill (Brown), Giorgio Pini (Fordham), Jacob Rosen (Harvard)
